Hell's Kitchen is Free
But Freedom has its price.

Although many people can pick up Hell's Kitchen at various locations for free, it still costs money to produce. Hell's Kitchen is a Sharezine, meaning that if you enjoy it, we'd like you to make a donation. It doesn't need to be much; just send us a check for an amount you think we deserve. Free subscription with any donation over nine dollars. See back for details. Your donation will go right back into printing and help ensure that Hell's Kitchen can continue to produce weekly material.

Make you checks or money orders out to Hell's Kitchen, 472 French Rd., Rochester, NY, 14618

From the Kitchen:

You can't write us off that easily...

...but we're hoping you'll eventually be able to. Hell's Kitchen is in the process of becoming a non-profit organization; the U.S. Government is working on the paperwork as I write. So eventually any donations made to the Kitchen will be tax deductible. Just because you'll be able to use us as a tax write-off soon, doesn't mean we couldn't use your donations right away. So if you're in a generous mood, buy a subscription, or just make a donation. Anything you're willing to give, we're more than willing to accept. Keep in mind that all donations go directly to printing costs—we have no paid staff. In fact it is our poor staff that keeps this operation going. So if you're one of our dedicated fans who thinks we write not wisely, but too well, send the gift that keeps on giving and help us survive to print another issue.

Wanted: People interested in helping distribute Hell's Kitchen on RIT. The only requirement is that you understand why a publication that says it is weekly must have issues out weekly.
